Downloads & Support

Extension can be downloaded from our shopping web page: <https://comdev.paytoolbox.com> To access downloads, first you need to have a valid Order and Registered Account.

If you have purchased our products without registering, you can still register using same email address to access your support and downloads panel (My Account).

Assuming that you're already on <https://comdev.paytoolbox.com> click on the top right Login button (if you're already logged in than click My Account):

Once logged in go to Orders and click On SHOW button next to the active (purchased) order:

On the Order details screen there will be buttons for Download and Support tickets:
